PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

At a session of the Public Service Commission held in the City of
New York on January 14, 2019

COMMISSIONER PRESENT:

John B. Rhodes, Chair

CASE 15-M-0388 - Joint Petition of Charter Communications and Time Warner Cable for Approval of a Transfer of Control of Subsidiaries and Franchises, Pro Forma Reorganization, and Certain Financing Arrangements.

ORDER GRANTING ADDITIONAL EXTENSIONS

(Issued and Effective January 14, 2019)

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

On July 27, 2018, the Commission issued an Order Denying Petitions for Rehearing and Reconsideration and Revoking Approval (the Revocation Order) and an Order Confirming Missed June 2018 Compliance Obligation and Denying Good Cause Justification (the Compliance Order).¹ The Revocation Order (1) revoked the Commission's January 8, 2016 approval of Charter Communications, Inc.'s (Charter or Company) acquisition of Time Warner Cable, Inc.'s New York assets and franchise and (2) directed Charter to file, within 60 days, a six-month exit plan (the Six-Month Exit Plan) to effect an orderly transition to one or more successor providers in areas previously served by Time Warner Cable, Inc. in New York. In the accompanying Compliance Order, the Commission determined that Charter failed to satisfy the June 18, 2018 target for the build out of Charter's network in New York State² and that Charter had not made a sufficient Good Cause showing for the missed June 2018 compliance obligation.

On August 17, 2018, Charter filed a letter requesting an extension of this 60-day deadline to file a plan with the Secretary, and the 30-day period to file petitions for rehearing of both the Revocation Order and the Compliance Order pursuant to Public Service Law (PSL) §22.³ On August 20, 2018, Charter's request to extend the deadline to file the Six-Month Exit Plan was granted to October 9, 2018.⁴ Also, on August 22, 2018, Charter's request for an extension of the 30-day deadline for the filing of rehearing petitions pursuant to PSL §22 was granted to September 10, 2018.⁵

² This June 2018 build out obligation was established in a Settlement Agreement approved by the Commission in a September 14, 2017 Order Adopting Revised Build-Out Targets and Additional Terms of a Settlement Agreement.

³ Case 15-M-0388, Request for Extension of Time (filed August 17, 2018).

⁴ An extension of the 60-day deadline from September 25, 2018 to October 9, 2018 was granted by the Secretary to the Commission pursuant to Order Clause 6 of the Revocation Order. See, Case 15-M-0388, Ruling on Extension Request (issued August 20, 2018).

⁵ Case 15-M-0388, Order Granting Extension (issued August 22, 2018).

On September 7, 2018, Charter filed a letter requesting an additional 30-day extension of the deadline to file petitions for rehearing of both the Revocation Order and the Compliance Order pursuant to PSL §22.⁶ The same day, Charter also submitted a request to extend the date for the submission of the Six-Month Exit Plan by 30 days.⁷ That request was granted on September 10, 2018.⁸

On October 9, 2018, Charter filed a further Request for Extension of Time to File Applications for Rehearing and Extension of the Deadline in Ordering Clause No. 4 of the July 27, 2018 Order,⁹ seeking sixty-day extensions of the deadline to file a Six-Month Exit Plan with the Secretary, and the period to file petitions for rehearing of both the Revocation Order and Compliance Order pursuant to PSL §22. That request was granted in limited part on October 10, 2018.¹⁰ The October 10 Order granted limited, 45-day extensions to the respective deadlines, but directed that in the event a settlement agreement was not reach by that date, any further consideration of extensions would require a joint filing providing good cause justification for why the deadlines should be further extended.

⁷ Case 15-M-0388, Request for Extension of Deadline in Ordering Clause No. 4 of July 27, 2018 Order (filed September 7, 2018).

⁸ Case 15-M-0388, Order Granting Requests for Extension (issued September 10, 2018). The August 22, 2018 and September 10, 2018 orders were confirmed in two Confirming Orders issued on September 12, 2018.

On November 21, 2018, Department of Public Service (DPS) Staff and Charter filed a joint letter stating that they had not yet been able to reach a fully executed settlement agreement, but that they had established a framework for the structure of a settlement agreement and that discussions were ongoing. The letter also stated that a further 18-day extension of the deadlines to file a Six-Month Exit Plan with the Secretary and to file petitions for rehearing of both the Revocation Order and Compliance Order pursuant to PSL §22 was therefore warranted.¹¹ This request was granted on November 23, 2018.¹² According to that joint letter, such a settlement agreement would necessarily address: issues relating to the inclusion of certain categories of addresses and whether they are valid "passings" under the Merger Approval Order; penalty actions and amounts under dispute in Supreme Court; and a schedule for compliance (including enforcement mechanisms) going forward.

On December 13, 2018, Charter and DPS Staff filed a joint letter requesting that the deadline to file a Six-Month Exit Plan with the Secretary be extended until February 11, 2019, and the deadline to file petitions for rehearing of both the Revocation Order and Compliance Order pursuant to PSL §22 be extended until January 14, 2019.¹³ That request was granted on December 14, 2018.¹⁴

On January 12, 2019, Charter filed a letter requesting that the Commission grant further 30-day extensions by January 14, 2019.¹⁵ This order grants limited 21-day extensions.

LEGAL AUTHORITY

Pursuant to PSL §22, “[a]fter an order has been made by the [C]ommission any corporation or person interested therein shall have the right to apply for a rehearing in respect to any matter determined therein, but any such application must be made within thirty days after the service of such order, unless the [C]ommission for good cause shown shall otherwise direct...” By this Order, good cause is found to exist here contingent on the specific facts and continued obligations discussed in this order.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION

Charter states in its request for a limited extension that settlement discussions are ongoing and productive.¹⁶ Given the ongoing dialogue along with the established framework for a settlement reported by the parties on November 21, 2018, which aligns with DPS Staff’s principles in its October 9, 2018 letter, as well as Charter’s continued obligations to comply with the Public Service Law and regulations, limited 21-day extensions to file a petition for rehearing and file the Six-Month Exit Plan are warranted to allow for further discussions while both sides reserve their respective legal rights.

The legal standard for granting the requested extension to petition for rehearing has been met contingent upon the continuation of productive engagement and dialogue by Charter, the absence of misleading advertisements, and Charter's continuing obligation to comply with the New York State Public Service Law and related regulations and requirements, and that therefore Charter's request to further extend the deadline for the filing of rehearing petitions pursuant to PSL §22 and to further extend the deadline for filing the Six-Month Exit Plan will be granted.¹⁷

It is ordered:

1. The deadline for the filing of rehearing petitions pursuant to Public Service Law §22 in connection with the Commission's July 27, 2018 Order Denying Petitions for Rehearing and Reconsideration and Revoking Approval and the Commission's July 27, 2018 Order Confirming Missed June 2018 Compliance Obligation and Denying Good Cause Justification is further extended by 21 days, i.e., until February 4, 2019.

2. The deadline for the filing of the Six-Month Exit Plan is further extended by 21 days, i.e., until March 4, 2019.

¹⁷ In its July 27, 2018 Revocation Order, the Commission directed Charter to comply with all New York State Public Service Law provisions and associated regulations and also directed Charter to continue to provide service to New Yorkers until the company's New York operations ceases via an orderly process. Extending the deadlines as requested by Charter does not change these obligations. In the event that Charter does not comply with such obligations, the Commission will take further steps, including seeking injunctive relief in Supreme Court to protect New York consumers.

3. Today's extension is contingent on, and is granted upon the express condition that, Charter continue to comply with the Public Service Law and regulations, and not air misleading advertisements.

4. This proceeding is continued.
