NOTICE REGARDING REPLY COMMENTS

(Issued September 5, 2014)

TAKE NOTICE that the participants in these proceedings (particularly, but not limited to the utility and non-utility developer/applicants) should submit reply comments that address an issue raised by New York Independent System Operator, Inc. (NYISO) at page six of its initial comments dated September 2, 2014. The NYISO notes that the Advisory Staff Proposal does not establish a mechanism for the NYISO to recover its costs for the performance of the study work to be done by the NYISO, including any work performed by consultants. Participants should address how best the NYISO should recover such costs including whether the developer/applicants should fund such costs before the work is performed. The reply comments are due on September 12, 2014.
