

Organizations, Businesses, and Elected Officials Who Submitted Comments in August 2011 Opposing Covanta's Petition to the Public Service Commission *

Nonprofit Organizations

Alliance for Clean Energy
American Lung Association in New York
Atlantic States Legal Foundation
Cancer Action NY
Capital Region Action Against Breast Cancer
Center for Health, Environment and Justice
Citizens Campaign for the Environment
Citizens for a Clean Environment
Citizens' Environmental Coalition
Clean and Healthy New York
Community Advocates for Safe Emissions
Consumers Union
Earthjustice
Environment New York
Environmental Advocates of New York
Grassroots Environmental Education
Great Neck Breast Cancer Coalition
Greenwich Citizens Committee
Habitatmap
Healthy Schools Network
Hudson River Sloop Clearwater
Huntington Breast Cancer Action Coalition
Morningside Heights/West Harlem Sanitation Coalition
Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC)
New York Interfaith Power & Light
New York Lawyers for the Public Interest
New York City Environmental Justice Alliance
New York Public Interest Research Group
Pace Energy and Climate Center peoples' Environmental Network of New York
Prevention is the Cure
Renewable Energy Long Island
SCRAP (Selkirk Coeymans Ravana Against Pollution)
Sierra Club Atlantic Chapter
The Point Community Development Corp.
Union of Concerned Scientists
West Harlem Environmental Action (WE ACT)

Elected Officials

Attorney General Eric Schneiderman
State Senator Tony Avella
State Senator Suzi Oppenheimer
State Senator Kevin Parker
State Senator Cathy Young
Assemblymember James Brennan
Assemblymember William Colton
Assemblymember Sandy Galef
Assemblymember Alan Maisel
Assemblymember Sam Roberts
Assemblymember Linda Rosenthal
Syracuse Common Council

Businesses

AWS Truepower
Con Edison
Everpower Wind Holdings
Iberdrola Renewables
Sustainable Energy Developments

 In addition to letters filed by these entities, more than 2,500 individual comments were submitted opposing Covanta's petition.