RULING POSTPONING SRIS NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENT

(Issued October 27, 2014)

MICHELLE L. PHILLIPS and DAVID L. PRESTEMON
Administrative Law Judges:

By ruling issued February 12, 2014, we established October 31, 2014 as the date by which NextEra Energy Transmission New York (NextEra), North America Transmission (NAT), and Boundless Energy NE (Boundless) had to comply with the Commission's requirement that Part A applications include a notice that a System Reliability Impact Study (SRIS) was in progress pursuant to the tariff requirements of the New York Independent System Operator. On August 13, 2014, the Commission issued a Notice Seeking Comments on Advisory Staff Recommendations (Notice) concerning, inter alia, the procedural process the Commission will follow with respect to the above-referenced cases. The Commission's consideration of the comments filed in response to the Notice is pending. As a result, we are postponing, without date, the deadline for notification that an SRIS is in progress, pending further guidance from the Commission on the future process to be followed in these cases.

CASES 13-E-0488, et al.
