Subject Con Edison Westchester Co. Outages Case 06-M- 1078

Dear Consolidated Edison Customer;

Thank you for your comments regarding the Con Edison's electric outages. Department of Public Service staff is undertaking a full investigation of Con Edison's response to the outages and resulting concerns and problems caused by the storm(s) and outages. I have forwarded your comments to the staff team that is reviewing Con Edison's response. Your concerns will become part of the investigation.

Again, thank you for taking the time to share your experience with the Public Service Department as we look into this matter.

Sincerely,

Dianne Cooper
Utility Consumer Program Specialist

My answer is NO to all related questions and the most important thing I can think of is that Con Ed REFUSED to be willing to pay their wokers their mandatory pay for overtime and holiday so they could fix all the problems. That was made clear by their complete lack of any vehicles in this area of Hartsdale/Greenburgh during and after the storm. Once the holiday was over, suddenly crews began showing up. THIS WAS ALL ABOUT MONEY AND CON EDS REFUSAL TO PAY THEIR WORKERS DURING THE WEEKEND/HOLIDAY AND OVERTIME PERIODS THEY WOULD HAVE HAD TO TO FIX OUR OUTTAGES.
