

common equity was a negative 73.6%.³ For 2007, Verizon reported an overall intrastate return of negative 6.24% and an intrastate return on common equity of negative 46.0%.

Moreover, this price change will encourage the migration of customers towards higher-value service bundles, consistent with the trend toward bundled service offerings in the market as a whole.

The proposed increase will not unduly burden Verizon's customers. Flat-rated service, at a total rate of no more than $23.00 per month, will remain available in all parts of the State other than New York City. In the City, the Unlimited Local Plan will remain available and will provide an access line plus unlimited local usage for a total of $23.00 per month.⁴ Verizon also offers other service bundles that provide greater functionality (e.g., calling features, toll and long-distance usage, etc.) at only modestly higher prices.⁵ Further, residential customers have numerous competitive alternatives to Verizon's service, as the Commission recognized in the Competition III Order.

An analysis of the revenue effect for this filing is attached (Attachment 2). Certain competitively sensitive information related to this filing has been deleted from the attached copy of the supporting material. An unredacted copy is being provided to Steven Blow, Records Access Officer, pursuant to a request for trade secret protection.

Verizon will arrange for newspaper publication of this filing in accordance with the Public Service Law. Customers will also be given notice of the filing in a May bill insert.

Very truly yours

⁵ For example, Regional Value (at $27.04 upstate and $22.04 downstate) and Regional Essentials (at $32.04 upstate and $27.04 downstate). Other, somewhat higher-priced, packages offer higher-value combinations of features and functions.
