

STATE OF NEW YORK
PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

CASE 16-C-0122 - Proceeding on Motion of the Commission to Consider the Adequacy of Verizon New York Inc.'s Retail Service Quality Processes and Programs.

NOTICE OF EVIDENTIARY HEARING AND
ORAL ARGUMENT ON MOTION

(Issued November 4, 2016)

TAKE NOTICE that an evidentiary hearing and oral argument will be held before Administrative Law Judge Sean Mullany at the Public Service Commission's Albany offices. The evidentiary hearing and oral argument will commence on Thursday, November 10, 2016, at 10:30 a.m., in the 19th Floor Board Room at Three Empire State Plaza.

The principal purposes of the evidentiary hearing and oral argument will be to hear sworn testimony and further argument on a motion, filed by Verizon New York Inc., on October 20, 2016, requesting an order barring Scott J. Rubin, an outside consultant retained by the Communications Workers of America, from access to Verizon Confidential Information.
