STATE OF NEW YORK PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

CASE 18-T-0499 - Application of NextEra Energy Transmission New York, Inc. for a Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Need Pursuant to Article VII of the Public Service Law for the Construction of a 20-Mile 345 Kilovolt Transmission Line Located in the Town of Royalton, Niagara County, and the Towns of Alden, Newstead, Lancaster, and Elma in Erie County.

NOTICE OF INFORMATION FORUMS AND PUBLIC STATEMENT HEARINGS (Issued January 15, 2019)

Public comment is sought on a request by NextEra Energy Transmission New York, Inc. (NEETNY), to construct and operate the Empire State Line Project (ESL Project), a 345-kilovolt (kV) transmission line and associated switchyards in the town of Royalton in Niagara County and the towns of Alden, Newstead, Lancaster, and Elma in Erie County. If the request is granted, NEETNY would be authorized to construct and operate a new, approximately 20-mile long transmission line; a new 345 kV switchyard (Dysinger Switchyard) in Niagara County; and a second, new switchyard (East Stolle Switchyard) in Erie County. The 20-mile long transmission line would be built in an existing utility corridor, owned by New York State Electric and Gas Corporation, and would connect the proposed Dysinger and East Stolle Switchyards to each other. Two sets of transmission lines, about 0.5 and 0.4 miles long, respectively, also would be constructed to connect the new switchyards to already existing transmission lines.

Please take notice that opportunities for public information and comment regarding NEETNY's request will be provided as follows:

Date: Wednesday, February 13, 2019
Location: Alden Town Hall - Auditorium 3311 Wende Road Alden, New York
Times: 2:30 PM and 6:30 PM - Information Forums, 3:00 PM and 7:00 PM - Public Statement Hearings

During the information forums, maps will be available to review, New York State Department of Public Service Staff representatives will give a short presentation on the review process in this case, and NEETNY's representatives will be available to answer questions about its proposal. The public is welcome to stop in at any time during the information forums to review information and ask questions. Each information forum will be followed by a public statement hearing where all those wishing to comment on NEETNY's request will have an opportunity to make a statement on the record before an Administrative Law Judge. It is not necessary to make an appointment in advance or to present written material to speak at the hearing. Persons will be called to speak after completing a request card. Each public statement hearing will be held open until everyone wishing to speak has been heard or other reasonable arrangements have been made to include their comments in the record. A verbatim transcript of the hearing will be made for inclusion in the record of this proceeding.

Persons with disabilities requiring special accommodations should call the Department of Public Service's Human Resources Management Office at (518) 474-2520 as soon as possible. TDD users may request a sign language interpreter by placing a call through the New York Relay Service at 711.

Individuals with difficulty understanding or reading English are encouraged to call the Commission at 1-800-342-3377 for free language assistance services regarding this notice.

OTHER WAYS TO COMMENT

For those who cannot attend or prefer not to speak at a public statement hearing, there are several other ways to comment about this case to the Commission. Comments should refer to "Case 18-T-0499 – ESL Project, Article VII."

Internet or Mail: Go to www.dps.ny.gov, click on "Search," enter the case number (18-T-0499), and then click on "Post Comments" at the top of the page; or send comments to the Secretary to the Commission at secretary@dps.ny.gov. Alternatively, comments may be mailed or delivered to Hon. Kathleen H. Burgess, Secretary, Public Service Commission, Three Empire State Plaza, Albany, New York 12223-1350.

Toll-Free Opinion Line: You may call the Commission's Opinion Line at 1-800-335-2120. This number is set up to take comments about pending cases from in-State callers, 24 hours a day. These comments are not transcribed verbatim, but a summary is provided to the Commission.

Comments submitted via these alternate means will be accepted throughout the pendency of this proceeding, but they are requested by February 19, 2019. Comments will become part of the record considered by the Commission. Written comments may be viewed at www.dps.ny.gov (search using the case number (18-T-0499) and click on the "Public Comments" tab). Many libraries offer free Internet access.

The application also may be viewed at public libraries in Clarence, Eden, Marilla, Alden, Elma, Lancaster, Akron, and Middleport.

Lancaster Rec Basketball

Win draws Pelicans closer to first place

Mother Nature shut down action in the Lancaster Recreation Department's Youth Basketball program for one week, but a resolute group of players and parents would not let her do it a second week, as games and instruction were held Saturday, Jan. 26.

Braving the snow and cold, the girls of the Bantam Conference kicked things off at Como Park Elementary School.

The Pelicans (4-1), behind 22 points from Isabel Zuppa, took down the Roadrunners, 47-32, to remain one game out of first place.

Quinn Longo's nine points and six from Marissa Kremblas supported Zuppa's scoring, as did the four points of Jillian Cummins and the six points trisected by Tessa Kremblas, Peyton Longo and London Tallman.

The Roadrunners were led by Gabby Smiech and Kara Klimtzak, who netted 16 and 12 points, respectively.

A basket from both Bryn Buchwald and Steller Firestone rounded out the scoring for the 1-4 Runners.

Penguins are no strangers to ice and cold, but even they could not weather the hot shooting of Julianna Pagano, whose 28 points guided the Ducks to victory, 48-40.

Lauren Jandzinski also had a big part in the win, having her best game of the season with 10 points, while Maura Millonzi added eight and Mackenzie Kupka two for the 3-2 winners.

Peytyn Chojnacki kept things close for the Penguins (2-3), dropping in 24 points to top their score sheet.

Brynn Dillon scored an additional 10 points, while Maria Minsterman, Juliet Mysiak and Sammie Uhteg each contributed a bucket in the loss.

The Cardinals appeared to be on their way to a loss, as well, scoring a paltry two points in the first half, but used a 23-point second half performance to storm back and steal a 25-24 win from the Eagles, keeping their record unblemished at 5-0.

Keira Farrugia scored 12 points to lead the comeback, but Olivia Ingersoll's six points, five from Coco Carlsen and a bucket from Autumn Carney all were needed to secure the victory.

Abigail Schlotterbeck matched Farrugia's output with 12 points for the hard-luck Eagles, who dropped to 0-5 on the season. Brenna Buccieri chipped in with six points of her own, while Claire Snyder notched four and Marianna Minnuto added two for the losers.

Rounding out the early slate was a well-played game that saw the Orioles end up on the good end of a 28-18 decision over the Blue Jays.

Alisa Overton's 12 points and Page Lewandowski's 10 drove the offense in the win. Cara Lewandowski kicked in an additional four points and Katie Myers two more for the 3-2 winners.

Melanie Marcezin again led the Blue Jays' (2-3) offense with 12 points and received help from Sophia Roy, who officials to cover all of the additional makeup games.

"There are so many games already scheduled," Schneider said. "Now you are going to throw in all of these makeup games. It creates more of a problem just trying to get officials to all of the games. Our officials in Western New York are tremendous when it comes to helping out, but there are only so many people to go around so there might be situations where some of the games are going to have to be moved a second or third time until we find officials for them."

He said he tries to give the officials whose games were rescheduled a first crack at it so they don't lose out on a game, but it is not always possible.

"We really lost four days actually because we lost Tuesday night because schools closed early, and then Wednesday, Thursday and Friday," Schneider said. "It's a lot that got canceled, but it's always safety first. We don't want to put anybody in harm's way."

Schneider thinks what might happen is that some of the non-league games against public schools might be cancelled, but it will depend on each school's availability in their schedules.

Monsignor Martin Association boys basketball teams can make up league games until Feb. 17 while girls teams have until Feb. 20. Schneider said there is not a lot of flexibility after that to make up any further games because the boys (Canisius College) and girls (Villa Maria College) basketball playoff games are at neutral sites.

"I hope we get all of the games in before then," Schneider said. "But we do our best to make the games as fair as possible."

Legends

Teammate Mike Wolford placed second in 52-8½.

Andy Pietrantoni was second in the weight throw in 64-8½ and fourth in the shot put in 51-11.

Sophomore Natalia Surdej won the girls shot put with a personal-best toss of 38-1 and the weight throw in 55-3.

Liz McKenzie was second in the weight throw with a personal-best throw of 43-7. Freshman Christine Wolford was second in the shot put in 33-11 and fifth in the weight throw in 34-1. Both were personal bests.

Lancaster travels to Houghton College at 5 p.m. Friday for the rescheduled freshmen, sophomore championships.
