NOTICE OF IMPENDING SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

Notice is hereby given in accordance with Section 3.9 of the New York State Public Service Commission’s regulations that Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation (the “Company”) and the New York State Department of Service Staff have agreed to enter into settlement negotiations in the above-captioned proceedings. A settlement conference, which will take place via teleconference and/or videoconference, will be held on January 10, 2024, and will commence at 1:30pm. Settlement negotiations will continue thereafter as may be necessary and convenient. The location, date, and time of subsequent negotiations will be provided to all parties at a later date.

All parties in the above-captioned proceedings may participate in the settlement via videoconference (with teleconference capabilities). The Company requests that parties to this proceeding affirmatively indicate, by electronic mail to the undersigned, if they intend to participate in settlement discussions. Parties wishing to participate via teleconference and/or videoconference will be provided the call-in number and participant code and/or login information prior to the meeting. Pursuant to 16 NYCRR § 3.9(d), settlement discussions are strictly confidential.

Any and all issues related to the above-captioned proceedings may be settled. The focus of the initial settlement meeting, in particular, is to explore whether certain stipulations are possible to narrow issues for the forthcoming evidentiary hearing.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, by service of this notice (by electronic mail) upon the parties to the above-referenced proceedings and the assigned Administrative Law Judges, all appropriate persons and parties will have been notified of the settlement negotiations in a manner to permit a reasonable time for preparation.
