RE: Triennial Filing UBP Section 2.D.2

Dear Mark Wiederman:

The Department of Public Service has received your company’s recent submittal made pursuant to Section 2.D.2 of the Uniform Business Practices (UBP). This letter acknowledges the submittal and the receipt of the document. This letter, however, does not constitute a determination that the company is in compliance with the UBP and applicable Commission Orders or is in good standing to provide energy services in New York.

LISTED BELOW IS AN OVERVIEW OF YOUR CURRENT ELIGIBILITY:

Commodity Eligibility	Electric Gas
Service Class Eligibility	Commercial/Industrial - Serving Residential - Serving Small Commercial - Serving
Product Eligibility (Required only for Mass Market Products)	Fixed Renewable Electric Home Warranty Electric Home Warranty Gas Variable Renewable Electric

Be advised, that to maintain your ESCO eligibility, you must notify Staff of any material changes to your company as they occur. If your business plan changes and you decide to expand your service offerings, you must immediately submit the appropriate documentation for Staff review and determination of eligibility (UBP Section 2.D.4). Also, if you decide to withdrawal your eligibility, an official letter should be sent to the Department.

Sincerely,

Office of Consumer Services
