Develop Dynamic Load Management Programs.

NOTICE EXTENDING COMMENT DEADLINE AND RESCHEDULING STAKEHOLDER SESSION

(Issued December 1, 2023)

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the date for comments from interested parties regarding the development of policies and procedures concerning the participation of residential customers in residential and small business Dynamic Load Management (DLM) Programs is hereby extended until January 5, 2024. Please refer to the November 27, 2023 Notice for pertinent filing information.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Stakeholder Session scheduled for December 11, 2023, will instead be held on January 12, 2024, via WebEx. The Stakeholder Session will start at 1:00 p.m. EST and will conclude by 3:30 p.m. EST.

The Stakeholder Session will be divided into two parts. First, the Joint Utilities will provide an overview of New York's six investor-owned electric utilities' annual reports concerning demand response programs.¹ The annual reports, filed in compliance with the Commission's directives, propose program

changes and tariff modifications to improve the operations and cost-effectiveness of the DLM Programs.²

Second, Staff will moderate a roundtable discussion guided by questions from Staff and the comments received regarding specific requirements related to Aggregator interactions with residential customers and utility handling of customer enrollments, dis-enrollments, and other administrative procedures necessary for operating DLM Programs. The discussion will inform a Staff proposal for the establishment of rules for residential participation in DLM programs. A detailed agenda will be posted by Staff at a later date.
