'Soldiers' Storm Kent School Campus

Fourth-graders from Kent Elementary School and Kent Primary School went back in time May 14 and became "continental soldiers" to honor the brave men and women that earned our inde-

Carmel students recently learned what it might have been like to be part of Gen. George Washington's Continental Army.

GFMS social studies teacher Keith Reilly and CHS social studies teacher Rob Buccheri created a presentation to enrich the fourth-grade English language arts and social studies curriculum. Students participated in a reenactment of an encampment during the Revolutionary War, dressed as soldiers in Gen. George Washington's Continental Army, and marched in formation to their camp commanded by "Sergeants" Buccheri and Reilly.

The Living History Education Foundation supplied the clothing, three cornered hats, "muskets" and tents so the fourth-graders were able to walk in the shoes of colonial soldiers.

Matthew Patterson Elementary School will be participating in this event in June.

‘Doc Lee’ Fishing Derby Another Success

Patterson Fire Department’s 2024 “Doc Lee” Memorial Fishing Derby returned May 27. About 60 participants up to age 15 ignored heavy rain and wind to enjoy the event. The largest trout caught was 12 ½ inches. The derby is a 25-year tradition, started by Doc Lee, who was a life member of the Patterson Fire Department. Thomas Lee, Henry Brunow and other members continue the legacy each year.

Donations Sought for Book Sale

The annual Patterson Book Sale returns this year thanks to the Patterson Volunteer Fire Department. Past sales have been a great success due to the large number of donations and enthusiastic support from the community, and the fire department hopes to make this year’s event even better.

The sale will run Saturday, Sept. 21 through Sunday, Sept. 29, in the pavilion and in two giant tents on the fire department grounds, 13 Burdick Road, across from the Patterson Library on Route 311.

The department will start collecting donations beginning Saturday, Aug. 10. Donors can drop off books, CDs, DVDs, blue-ray discs or vinyl LPs in a storage container located near the pavilion on the fire department grounds.

Donations should be placed inside the container, not left outside. It would be helpful if fiction, non-fiction and children’s books are brought in separate bags or boxes. Only books in good condition should be donated.

No magazines, textbooks, encyclopedias, VHS tapes or cassettes will be accepted.

Putnam Deputies Complete Statewide Training Program

All sheriff's offices have civil law enforcement functions, including the service of process and enforcement of judgments and other court orders and mandates. The school provides participants with training in the latest advances in civil law enforcement and a forum to discuss current civil law enforcement issues and share best practices.

Training took place in Albany and classes were taught by instructors from sheriff's offices across the state who have a vast amount of knowledge in civil enforcement procedures. PCSO Captain Michael Grossi, who has more than 27 years of civil experience and knowledge, instructed in both sessions.

Get Funds for Home Energy Upgrades

New York State recently became the first state in the nation to offer the first phase of Inflation Reduction Act Home Electrification & Appliance Rebates Program funding to consumers.

The initial $39.6 million formula grant will expand the reach of New York’s EmPower+ program by allowing more low-income families to improve their homes with energy efficiency and electrification upgrades that will reduce energy costs and transition away from burning fossil fuels in their homes.

The recent announcement supports the state’s nation-leading Climate Leadership & Community Protection Act goal to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 85 percent by 2050 and requirement for at least 35 percent, with a goal of 40 percent of the benefits of clean energy investments supporting disadvantaged communities.

This represents the first step in New York State deploying these IRA rebates to residents. Funding for the full portfolio of IRA Home Energy Rebate programs and deployment of additional rebates is expected later this year. The state is eligible to receive a total of $317.7 million through the Department of Energy’s IRA Home Energy Rebate programs – $159.3 million for the Home Efficiency Rebates program and $158.4 million for HEAR program.

In April, the Department of Energy approved the New York State Energy Research & Development Authority’s partial-scope application for this initial funding, which allows NYSEERDA’s low income EmPower+ program to expand its current reach by providing funding for additional energy efficiency and beneficial electrification improvements, such as insulation and air sealing, heat pumps for space and water heating, and any necessary electrical upgrades to support those improvements.

Eligible owners of one- to four-family households that have a household income below 80 percent of the area median income or participate in a utility payment assistance program will now automatically be enrolled to benefit from HEAR incentives when they apply to the EmPower+ program.

Incentives are provided through EmPower+ contractors to reduce the cost of installing energy efficiency and electrification upgrades in a home or apartment, making them more affordable for New Yorkers. For more information, including the application process and eligibility requirements, visit www.nyserda.ny.gov/All-Programs/EmPower-New-York-Program.

NYSERDA is currently working toward developing and submitting the full HEAR application to enable rebate offers to moderate-income residents, up to 150 percent of area median income, and to owners of larger low- and moderate-income multifamily buildings, including high-efficiency electric appliance rebates.
