

STATE OF NEW YORK
PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

CASE 22-M-0429 - Proceeding on Motion of the Commission to Implement the Requirements of the Utility Thermal Energy Network and Jobs Act.

NOTICE OF TECHNICAL CONFERENCE

(Issued September 21, 2023)

On September 14, 2023, the Commission issued its Order Providing Guidance on Development of Utility Thermal Energy Network Pilot Projects (Order) in the above-captioned case. As explained in the Order, the Utility Thermal Energy Network and Jobs Act, which took effect on July 5, 2022, requires each of the seven largest gas, electric, or combination gas and electric utilities to submit at least one and as many as five proposed thermal energy projects. The Order requires Final Utility Thermal Energy Network Pilot Project Proposals to be filed no later than December 15, 2023,<sup>1</sup> and it also requires Department of Public Service staff to convene a technical conference to identify key terms and develop agreed upon definitions for use within this proceeding.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a Technical Conference regarding Utility Thermal Energy Networks Terms and Definitions will take place on October 11, 2023, beginning at 10:00 a.m. To facilitate a productive discussion and for planning purposes, interested stakeholders are encouraged to submit a list of terms, with or without accompanying definitions, along with other relevant input or questions, by October 4, 2023, via email to Jordan Lesser, Assistant Counsel, at jordan.lesser@dps.ny.gov.
