1) Welcome:

- a. Attendance
- b. Review/modify agenda
- c. DPS staff remarks

2) 867 bill message updates – John Sheevers

ConEdison Update – Andrew Review O&R changes are now live in production. Con Edison also implemented the changes. The changes were implemented 6/22/2022.

3) Utility EDI supplemental status check – Josh Pasquariello

National Grid – Greg Accardo stated that NIMO is now reviewing their supplemental guides and is identifying updates to make. Greg had reached out to Jim Wade to discuss if anything jumped out in NIMOs guides that were particularly troublesome. Greg stated that, with Jim’s feedback, changes and improvements to their guides are underway. Specifically, it was requested there be example data in guides to illustrate the proper format for specific segments and data.

Con Edison/O&R – Andrew Revie states O&R guides are up to date. ConEdison reps not on call.

Central Hudson – Review has not yet begun. Goal is to have work underway by the time of the next working group call.

NYSEG/RGE – Pete Foster stated that the EDI guides from NYSEG/RGE are up to date.

National Fuel – National Fuel updated their guides and are in the process of posting them to their site. They will work with DPS to Staff to ensure the content on the utility side

Pseg – Not on call.

4) Utility System Updates

- a. Central Hudson
 - i general updates – Stacy Powers

-continuing to address lingering technical issues. They are at the stage where they are working with ESCOs one on one to resolve any ongoing issues.

- ii ICAP – question from Alex De La Rosa at Engie

ICAPS are provided manually to ESCOs, Stacy Powers requests that ESCOs contact Central Hudson retail access team to obtain the necessary ICAP tags. Stacy said that when ESCOs reach out, they will be provided with an excel file containing the necessary ICAP tags.

- b. Others

Stephen Wilson requested a statement from ConEdison/O&R about their status on the company's system update. Andrew Review of O&R confirmed that May 2023 is still the target to implement the changeover to the new billing system.
